

Please, tell us something about you.

Name and surname: Joana Kamenova

Where are you from? : Bulgaria

Name of your University: King's College
London

Year of attendance: 2008-2009

What major are you in? : International Relations, European Studies

What is your hobby? :

Hiking, yoga, reading Kabbalah Philosophy, cooking

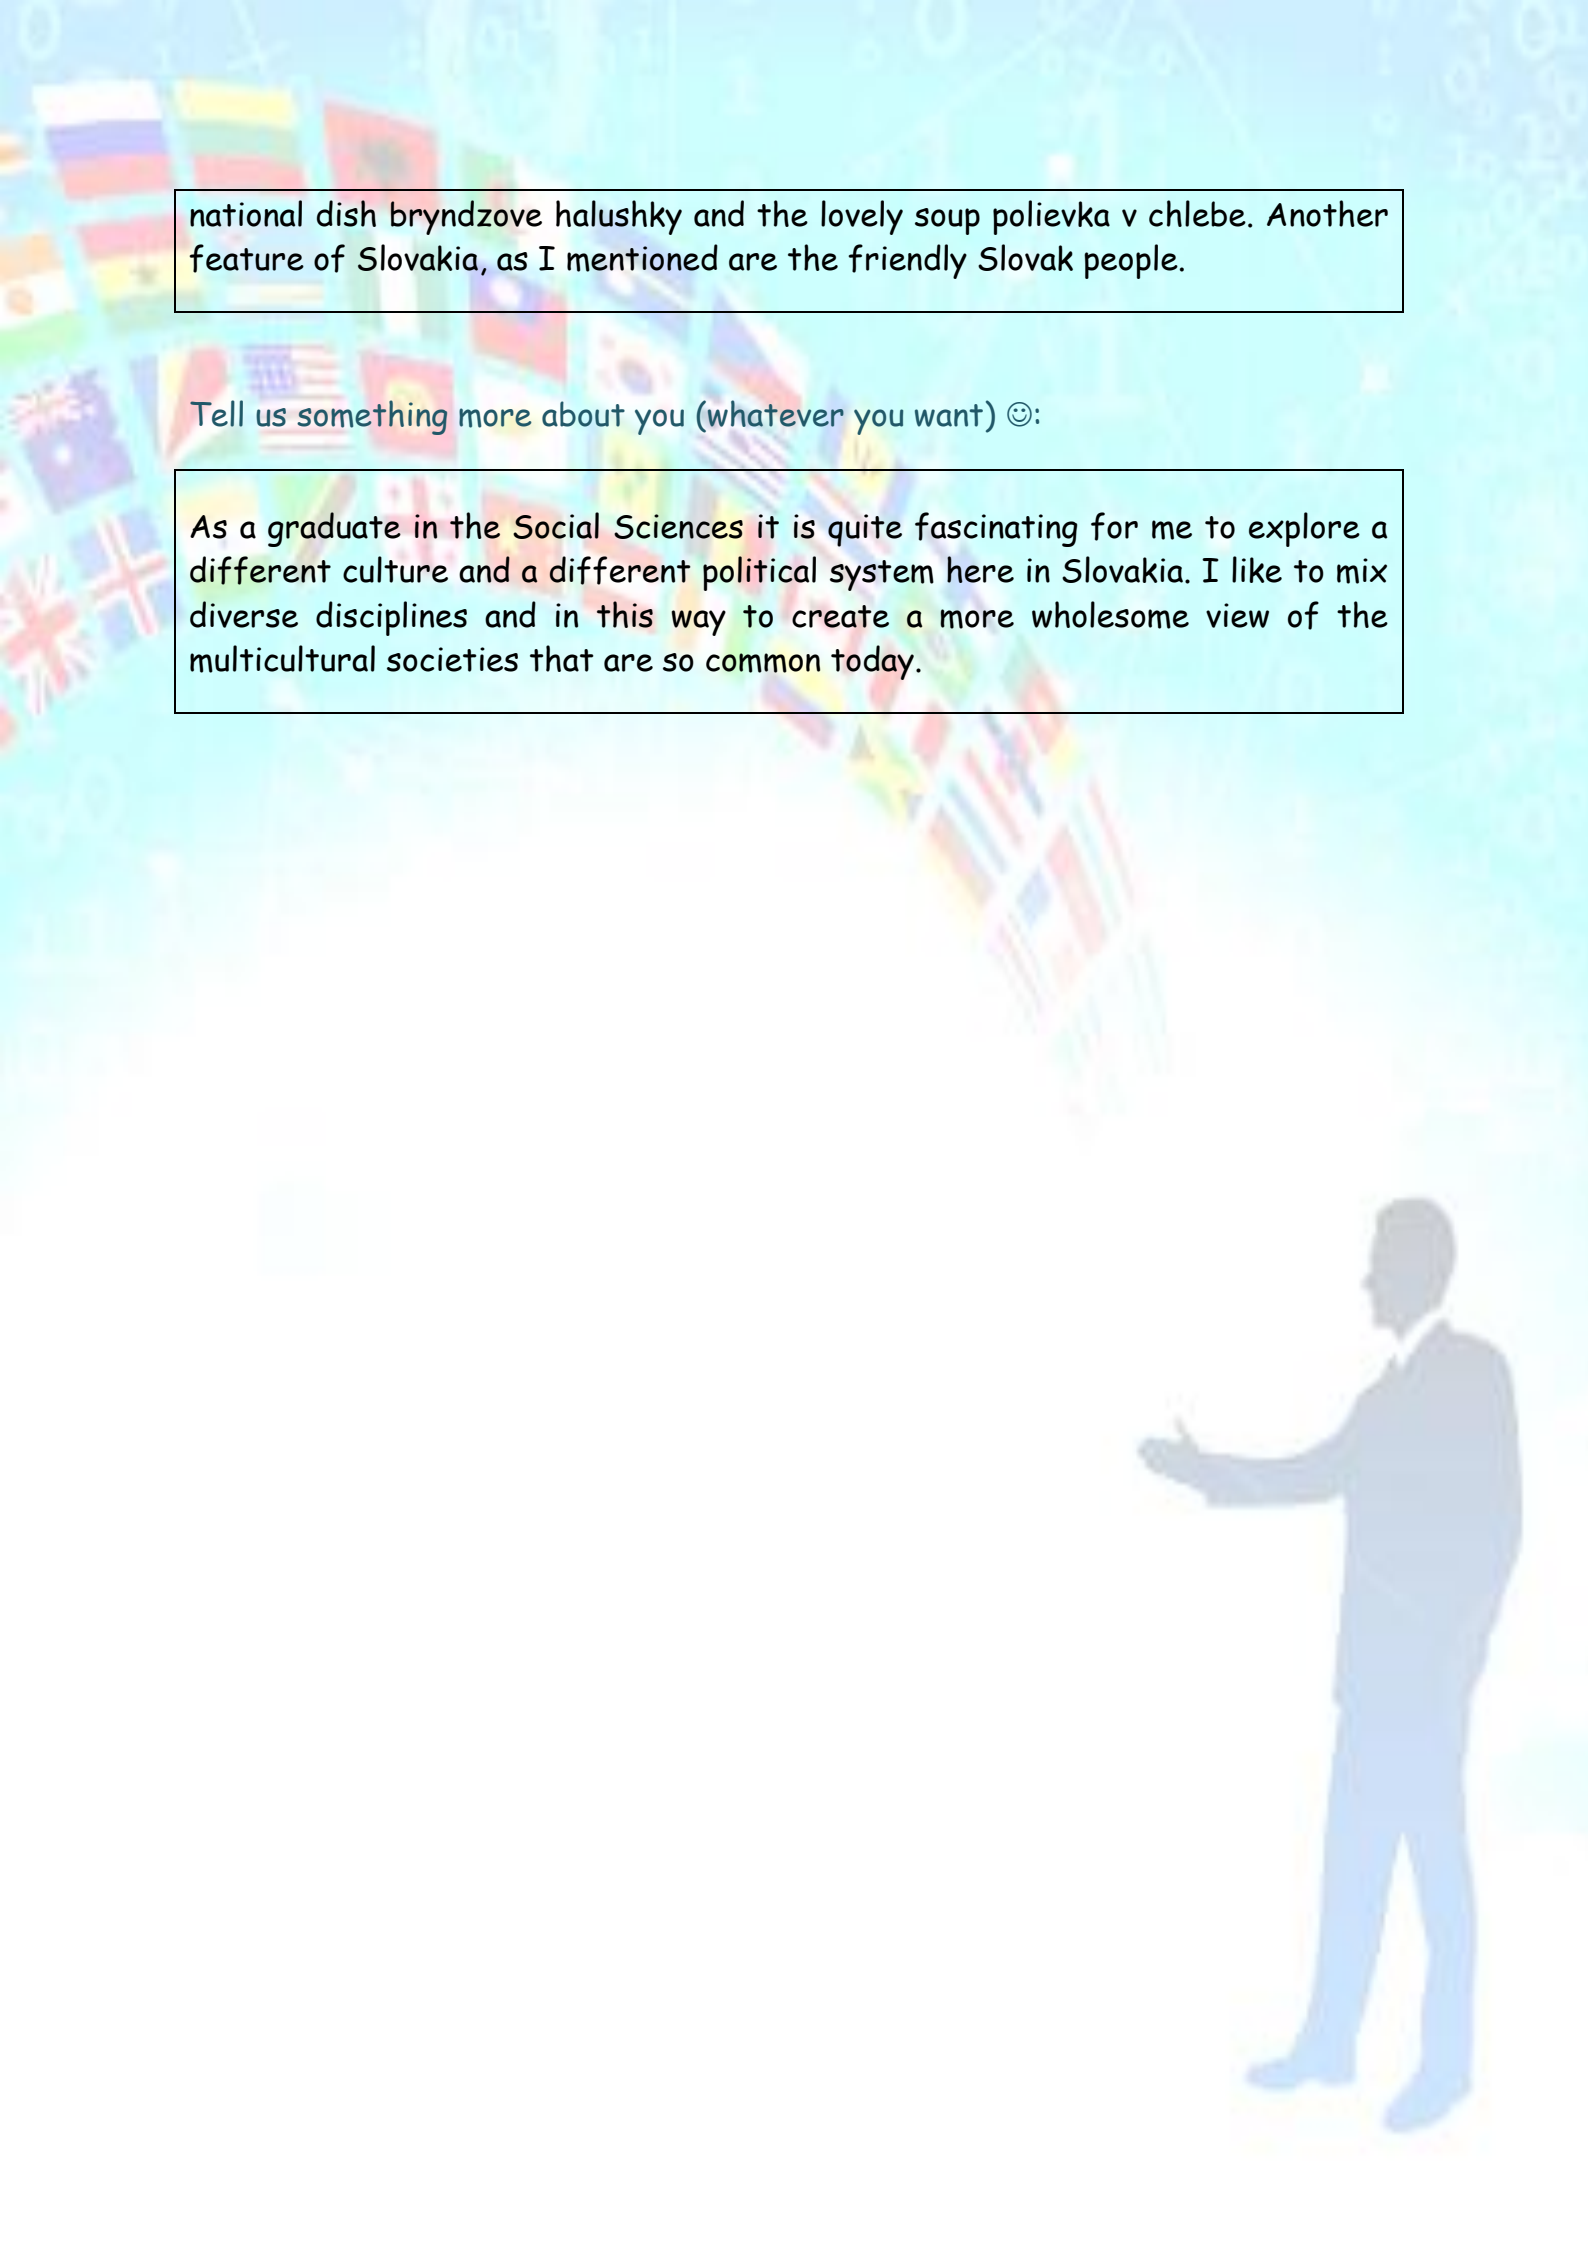

What do you like about Slovak people? 😊:

Slovak people are very friendly and helpful. They always try to make you feel at home and at the same time they introduce you to their Slovak culture and habits. Slovak people are also very open to other cultures and are always willing to take upon new and challenging experiences.

Do you like Slovakia and what do you like the most about Slovakia? :

I like Slovakia a lot. As a country Slovakia has a lot to offer with its diverse landscape; with its mountains and its thermal springs. I quite like the Slovak national dish bryndzove halushky and the lovely soup polievka v chlebe. Another feature of Slovakia, as I mentioned are the friendly Slovak people.

The background of the entire page is a light blue collage. On the left side, there is a vertical strip of various national flags, including those of the United States, the United Kingdom, and others. On the right side, there are faint, vertical columns of binary code (0s and 1s).

Tell us something more about you (whatever you want) ☺:

As a graduate in the Social Sciences it is quite fascinating for me to explore a different culture and a different political system here in Slovakia. I like to mix diverse disciplines and in this way to create a more wholesome view of the multicultural societies that are so common today.

